FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Eleven Low Income Homeowners Receive New Roofs!

The Colorado Roofing Association (CRA) and Rebuilding Together of Metro Denver teamed up once again for another successful National Rebuilding Day in the Denver metro area!

The CRA is very proud of all its participating members for helping this Colorado non-profit organization. Rebuilding Together rehabilitates the homes of low-income, elderly, or disabled homeowners in hopes that they are able to safely stay in the houses they love. These two Colorado organizations have been teaming up to keep homeowners DRY since April of 2001.

Warm, Safe, and specifically DRY was the GOAL for members of the CRA throughout the month of April. With the help of twenty-nine roofing contractors, the CRA replaced the roofs on eleven homes and repaired eight others. In addition, most of the materials were donated and loaded with the support of eight suppliers and eight roofing manufacturers.

April 24th, the day slated as National Rebuilding Day, had 30 Rebuilding Together teams repairing low-income homes in the Denver Metro area. In the spirit of volunteerism, the CRA Board members and their families sponsored a home in Aurora, CO. The adopted home was one of the worst to be fixed that day. The owner Ms. Hayden-Summerton is bi-polar, single and can no longer afford to fix or maintain the home herself. With the CRA Board acting as "house captain," the team of CRA volunteers made repairs to the home that included a new roof, new bathroom shower, two new doors, drywall, painting, electrical, and some "heavy-duty" clean up.

The CRA thanks the following companies for the donation of their time, materials, labor and hard work to this years CRA's "Flagship" community service project -- Rebuilding Together 2004.
