FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

William E. Kugler receives Colorado Roofing Association Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Colorado Roofing Association honored William (Bill) E. Kugler at their 5th Annual Awards Banquet on February 9th.

Kugler is known in Colorado roofing circles as a tireless leader and man of high integrity. The association is proud to honor such a man.

Kugler began his roofing career at the ripe old age of 11 working for his Father and Founder of United Materials.

In 1958 he graduated from the University of Colorado and began his long and successful career at United Materials.

Kugler became President of United Materials in 1970 and continued to not only market the contracting side of the business but also the many products that United Materials supplied to the roofing industry. An innovator, Kugler holds several patents on roofing related products and was always on the lookout for a new, better and safer way to complete roofing projects.

In retirement, Kugler continues to think of new ideas for the betterment of the roofing industry.

Congratulations Bill on your receipt of the Colorado Roofing Association Lifetime Achievement Award.
